

student's personality and represents the activities of the university administration, its divisions, various public associations aimed at ensuring the socio-economic, political, cultural and spiritual development of youth.

The Committee of Youth Organizations of Al-Farabi Kazakh National University is a structural subdivision of the NAO "Al-Farabi Kazakh National University".

As of September 1, 2022, the Committee of Youth Organizations has 16 representative offices at faculties, unites the Senate of Students, the "Student Senate", OF "Komek", the Association of Foreign Students, the Trade Union Organization of Students and Undergraduates "Sunkar", OF "League of Volunteers", the Student Bureau for the Bologna Process, the Supreme Student Council, the Scientific student community, Law Enforcement Squad, youth committee "Zhastar Rukhy", "Altyn Sapa" intellectual debaters club, "Sanaly Urpak" club student organizations at faculties by specialty, the total number of members of the committee of youth organizations is more than 12,530 people, which is 65.9% of the total contingent of students. University students take an active part in international, republican, regional, city competitions and events, which increases the recognition of the university in the international arena. Then, as one of the most important tasks of the higher education system is the creation of a "core of national intelligence", the training of specialists capable of competing at the international level. Creative thinking, the ability to process knowledge, give birth to new solutions, technologies and innovations should become important qualities of a highly competitive specialist. The formation of these qualities requires, first of all, the creation of prerequisites for the organic inclusion of university graduates in innovative scientific, economic, social and cultural activities, the integration of academic, research work of students, the organic connection of the educational process with extracurricular activities, timely identification of creative inclinations of students.

Main tasks

The goal of the University's youth policy is to create conditions conducive to the intellectual, spiritual and physical development of the university's youth, to increase their competitiveness and to activate the social activities of youth. In this regard, the university sets the following tasks:

- Promotion of intellectual, professional, socio-cultural and physical development of students and young scientists of the University;
- Education of a patriot of his country who cares about the economic prosperity and continuity of the spiritual values of our society;

- A citizen who actively participates in state and public life, a highly developed person who knows the history and culture of his people, his achievements in science, literature and art;
- Empowering young people to achieve personal success;
- Development and realization of creative and innovative potential of youth;
- Identification, promotion and support of youth activity and achievements in the socio-economic, scientific, creative and sports spheres;
- Formation of positive work motivation, high business activity, successful mastery of the basic principles and skills of effective behavior in the field of labor and vocational training among young people;
- Creation of a system to counteract the spread of antisocial phenomena among young people.

Main functions

- Strengthening the motivation of research work of bachelors and undergraduates; development of a system of measures that stimulate the involvement of students to perform paid research work, as well as a system of targeted support for talented students, undergraduates, doctoral students, young scientists;
- Development of plans for social, cultural and festive events of the university, ensuring their implementation;
- Organization of work in close contact with faculties and student organizations of the university;
- Work with international students, assistance in adaptation and integration into the university environment;
- Assistance in the implementation of inclusive education at the university, in which all students, regardless of their physical, mental, intellectual and other characteristics, should be included in the general education system, and their special educational needs should be taken into account and the necessary special support provided;
- Study of students' interests and requests in the field of leisure;
- Organization and holding of meetings, honoring veterans of war and labor, meetings with famous scientists, cultural figures, round tables, thematic and creative evenings at faculties and dormitories, etc.;

- Carrying out preventive measures to prevent offenses.

Goals and objectives of the Concept and Action Plan

The main goal of the concept and Action Plan of the Committee of Youth Organizations for the 2022-2023 academic year is to unite and involve all students in the activities of the Committee of youth organizations, create the image of the organization - the Committee of young people, take practical measures in the main areas of its activities: organizational, ideological, informational and analytical.

The main activities for the implementation of the goals and objectives of the «Committee of Youth Organizations» for the 2022-2023 academic year

The main activity of the «Committee of Youth Organizations» will be aimed at increasing the civic engagement of young people. At the same time, it is also necessary to strengthen the activities and control of organizational – intra-faculty and information-analytical activities, new approaches will be used in these areas, new topical topics for discussion will be introduced.

1) Organizational and intra-faculty work will focus on:

- strengthening the activities of the «Committee of Youth Organizations» at the faculties, creating a strong effective team of like-minded people, strengthening the interaction of the Rector's Office with students;

- conducting educational trainings and seminars for the asset of student self-government.

2) The priority direction of its activity of the «Committee of Youth Organizations» considers the improvement of the effectiveness of ideological work with students, the organization of information and analytical work of student self-government.

Student Senate with Student. The councils of dormitories at the faculties will implement ideological work with various social strata of students: Presidential fellows, activists, athletes, excellent students, city students, students in various religious denominations, with young families. The Committee of Youth Organizations has planned a number of activities aimed at introducing basic ideological attitudes.

Round tables, trainings and seminars are planned in this direction, planned as part of the intensification of broad explanatory work on the prevention of any unconstitutional and antisocial actions, namely:

- conducting a lecture;
- holding of the republican and international competition;
- implementation of the innovative project "Civic School of Youth";
- holding a city debate tournament for the university cup;
- holding of the sports contest "Sport, success, victory!";
- information campaign within the framework of the state program "Cultural Heritage".

3) The main task of the Committee of Youth Organizations is, firstly, to become a condition for the realization of creative activity in educational, cognitive, scientific, professional and cultural relations. Secondly, to become a real form of student democracy with appropriate rights, opportunities and responsibilities. Thirdly, to become a means of socio-legal self-defense of students. To popularize the « Committee of Youth Organizations » and organize students' leisure activities, a number of mass events will be held that meet the interests of the student subculture. Trainings and a Young Leader's School will be organized.

Expected results

When implementing this Concept of the Committee of Youth Organizations for the 2022-2023 academic year, the following results will be achieved:

- raising the status of the Committee of Youth Organizations;
- increasing the popularity of « Committee of Youth Organizations » among students;
- formation of the image of a popular student, relevant structure;
- involvement of students in their activities, the formation of their civic engagement;
- development and increase of the human resources potential of the country – the main strategic resource of Kazakhstan on the way to the realization of the high goals set by the Head of State;

- formation of stable needs of young people for the development of political consciousness, citizenship, patriotic education, spiritual and moral, professional self-determination and creative self-actualization of the individual;

- fostering a culture of interethnic communication;

- formation of a healthy lifestyle;

- development of ecological culture;

- improving the effectiveness of cooperation between the subjects of partnership in the education of students.

The successful implementation of the university's youth policy is the creation of a positive image of KazNU not only as a classical university, but also as the most important socio-cultural center of youth life, in which professional and social skills of students are formed.

This Concept expresses the strategic line of the state to improve the social, legal and organizational conditions for the development and realization of the personal and professional potential of young people and defines the goals, objectives, main priorities, directions and measures for the implementation of youth policy in the Al-Farabi Kazakh National University.